

The test consists of 4 parts: (Total Marks: 25)

a. Reading comprehension (2x2= 4 Marks)

Candidates will be given a text, usually taken from books, magazines, or newspapers. for the reading test on reading. A variety of questions including multiple choice and identifying information as true or false will be used.

b. Listening ability (3x2= 6 Marks)

The listening section will consist of an audio sample which could either be a conversation between two speakers or a monologue. A variety of questions including multiple choice and identifying information as true or false will be used.

c. Structure of language (10x 1= 10 Marks)

The section consists of questions based on grammar and usage.

d. Writing well (1x5= 5 Marks)

The writing test consists of one task which requires the learners to write at least 200 words on a given topic